Attorney Jeff Sessions: You should have been held accountable for the actions of your own agency, during the time frame that you were the U.S. Attorney General serving at the pleasure of President Donald J. Trump. You were requested to investigate into the fraud, waste and abusive behaviors of those in power, in the State of New Hampshire. for decades. You ran off to the state to meet with those in law enforcement in this region, as soon as you took your oath to serve. You were surely not interested in “law and order.”

You are interviewing once again, with employees of Fox News Corporation suggesting that you should move on back into the U.S. Senate, as a representative. You should have been serviced with questions and accountability, long before you were fired by your boss, Donald J. Trump. The media industry has done this country a huge injustice. You wonder why we have so many unethical attorneys serving as lead attorneys in the U.S.D.O.J., and the FBI, under the leadership of both political parties for “decades.” Too many favors are offered to states by federal officials stonewalling any concerns for those of us requesting protection during a time frame, when “unlawful” actions are in the hands of law enforcement.

The fraud supported by the U.S.D.O.J. and covered up by the media resources is shameful and it has become criminal a process. You are not an honorable person. You are part of the problem and you should go into retirement and never request to become a public servant ever again. You are just one of many men and women causing problems during your time frame serving as a public servant. You were not too concerned with all the fraudulent practices supported by the U.S.D.O.J. and the law firms making so much money covering up for that fraud of the Vaccination Injury Compensation Program.

William Barr and Robert Mueller should have been held accountable, as well, for all that “collusion” and corruption involved within the walls of the U.S.D.O.J., during this entire presidency of Donald J. Trump. Barack Obama? George W. Bush?

We wonder why we are witnessing such a mess in 2020? Look in the mirror. Donald J. Trump met with Brian Moynihan of Bank of America and many of the “elite” men and women involved in the banking industry. He never questioned him about the immoral behaviors supported by Bank of America, during one time frame, when his bank worked with law enforcement, in New Hampshire. Unlawful foreclosure practices in the hands of law enforcement? Who bails them out, Jeff Sessions?

Sincerely, Elizabeth A. Rawnsley

(Maybe, CEO, Mark Zuckerberg should be questioned as well, about his involvement in how they do business. Silencing truthful facts and closing down those facts released on to the public? That is how Fox News Corporation did business for two decades.)
