My name is Margaret Kris. I am hearing impaired and video conferences of a long duration are difficult for me. I have put in complaints to the Manchester Police department the Department of Justice the Valley street jail and I have got no resolution to the mistreatment I received having five officers and a K9 come to arrest me after an eviction in 2018. I was not granted bail though everyone else walks on a PR. As part of a Federally protected class why has there been no resolution to my concerns? The jail refuses to cooperate with discovery I was assaulted by the staff while held overnight when I should have gotten bail. My son attempted to film my arrest and was threatened with arrest himself he went to the police station to bail me out and was informed she isn't going anywhere. I had asked for medical treatment and was denied. I had chest pains a week prior and during my detainment. The officers
