Hello,

Thank you for taking the time to read this email.

If these matters have been addressed, pardon the duplication. I just heard about these meeting being open to the public via a video I watched of a radio talk show with a few Chiefs of Police, including our own Chief Hoebeke of Hollis.

A State standard for all police departments seem elementary...now that we know there is not one.

Seems like we don't need to re-create the wheel when there is CALEA standards and the Obama 21st Century standards.

Also, the public across the country is now more informed and educated about the barriers to "cleaning up" corrupt law enforcement:
unions, qualified immunity, discipline and rehiring "bad cops, " etc.

The sub culture of "white supremacy/racism" has been exposed; NH is not exempt and if we don't accept that then we are not part of the solution.

Colorado seems to have done it right to start.

Thanks for your time,
Bonnie
