Kim-

Would you please post this email to the Commission's public record:

To All Commissioners,
Ethical Policing is Courageous, (EPIC) training, created in 2016 by the New Orleans PD and others, is a training program that empowers officers to interceded and prevent officer misconduct. EPIC training was a local NOPD initiative. To meet the needs of a national interest in providing this program across the country, Georgetown University has partnered with EPIC to continue the training which is now packaged as ABL (Active Bystandership for Law Enforcement) training. I have attached a news release related to ABL training and particularly a link to a free informational webinar set for this Wednesday. I would ask that any of the commissioners that have the opportunity, to please sign in for a bit of time to find out more about this program. I have spoken with the Chairman of the ABL Board, attorney Jonathan Aronie, who was a DOJ consent decree monitor for the NOPD and helped develop EPIC back in 2016. He and I are very excited to help bring this program to the State of NH.
